Stobi Winery has been part of the August Wine Group family since 2012.

The best grapes deserves only the best. Only with combination of knowledge, experience transmitted through generations, modern technology and lots of love and passion the best and tastiest wine can be created, wine which arouses passion for life. Young in years, experienced in knowledge. Stobi winery is the newest and most modernly designed Macedonian winery, located in the municipality of Gradsko, next to the ancient site Stobi, where it gets its name from. The wisdom and experience of the first inhabitants transferred from time immemorial until today are reflected in perfect harmony with the modern technology and the knowledge.
