PARTNERSHIP

Navarro Correas has been part of the August Wine Group family since 2017.

Located in the exclusive district of Agrelo at the foothill of the Andes, the winery has the ultimate technology in service of quality and 36 hectares dedicated to the production of our high tier wines. Technology, innovation, sustainability and care of the environment were the pillars that sustained design decisions and constructive processes.

The winery's entire structure is designed with the purpose of generating as little environmental impact as possible to the surroundings. This is evident in several aspects, from the winery's orientation, which allows greater sun exposure during the daytime without increasing the temperature inside, to the use of noble materials. Bodega Navarro Correas is one of the most efficient and environmentally sustainable wineries today.
